

Australasian College of ENT Physicians
Satellite Meeting before ASOHNS
Thursday 12th March 2020
International Convention Centre Sydney

Provisional Program

Future Problems and Solutions

The aim is to keep us together and on top of changing regulations, knowledge and technology, and to anticipate upcoming changes and adapt in a timely manner.

8.30am – 9.00am: Registration

9.00am - 9.10am: Welcome

9.10am – 10.00am: Inner ear disease and solutions

Idiopathic Sudden Sensorineural Hearing loss:
Pathology and proven solutions

Intralabyrinthine Schwannomas: Pathology and new solutions for intracochlear, intravestibular and cochlea-vestibular tumours. Dr Michael Dobson and Brian Williams

10.00am – 10.30am: Inner Ear Disease and Solutions

Spontaneous Intralabyrinthine Haemorrhage,
Cogan's, Dehiscences.

Traumatic sensorineural hearing loss and vertigo.

10.30am – 11.00 am: Morning tea

11.00am – 12.30pm: Inner Ear Disease and Solutions

New Imaging of the inner ear. Radiologist to be Advised.

Meniere's, Vestibular atelectasia, Perilymph fistula, intralabyrinthine schwannoma.

Radiotherapy: New Gamma knife applications to the cochlear and labyrinth.

Cisplatin ototoxicity: Pathology of the problem.

External Auditory Canal Disease and solutions.

Recalcitrant ear canal psoriasis: New solutions.

12.30pm – 1.30pm: Lunch

1.30pm – 2.00pm: Laryngeal Disease and Solutions

Work-associated Irritation of the Larynx Syndrome (WILS): Pathology and solutions

2.00pm -2.45pm: Nasal disease and Solutions

Biologics for CRSwNP: New solutions; what are their roles. Assoc Professor N Singh.

2.45pm – 3.15pm: Afternoon tea

3.15pm – 5.00pm: Medico Legal Assessment: New problems/controversies and new solutions.

Case presentations and discussion. Drs Joe Scoppa and Brian Williams. If you would like to present a case please contact Dr Brian Williams.